

Home Quest #9

Identify the Good Bugs

Pesticide use in our community (and anywhere) can lead to too much algae and pollution in our lakes. The best way to rid your garden of unwanted critters is to attract beneficial insects (the good bugs).

For this challenge you must learn which bugs are beneficial to your garden. Pick three beneficial insects you may see around our area and find out one way for each bug you can attract that good bug to your yard.